Raffle winner picked in drawing

At a drawing last week in City Hall Council Chambers, Mrs. Mamie Martzen, 39 Williams Avenue, had her winning ticket pulled in the 50-50 raffle sponsored by the Committee to Restore Carbondale City Hall. A total of 1,070 tickets were sold in the raffle and the winning prize of $535 will be presented to Mrs. Martzen at a later date.

In other news on the restoration effort, the city building has been placed on the Pennsylvania Inventory of Historic Places according to Barbara Philpott of the Pennsylvania Historical & Museum

Commission. She also told Robert Powell, president of the committee, that Carbondale City Hall appears to meet certain criteria to qualify for a listing on the National Register of Historic Places and has been sent a nomination form and given a priority number for the nomination, which is being completed by Powell.

The next meeting of the restoration group will be Thursday, March 4, at 7:30 p.m. in Council Chambers. The public is encouraged to attend.
